- ▶ Facilitation and coaching skills necessary to lead and participate in team workshops
- ▶ Communications strategy development and change management aspects of the balanced scorecard journey
- ▶ How to practice building a scorecard application under the eye of an experienced certifying balanced scorecard consultant
- ▶ Successful implementation techniques, as well tips and tricks for dealing with implementation issues standing in the way of successful scorecard programs
- ▶ Comprehensive approaches to strategic planning, strategic management, performance measurement and target setting, initiative prioritization, performance information systems, and program evaluation
- ▶ Modern approaches to strategic thinking and strategy mapping
- ▶ How to cascade the enterprise scorecard throughout the organization

Course benefits

This is a hands-on workshop taught by the most senior BSI facilitating consultants, and is designed to enable anyone involved with developing a balanced scorecard system to act as a coordinating change agent/internal consultant to lead and develop a scorecard system. Instructors will work closely with each participant to design solutions to their particular challenges. Participants will learn how to develop balanced scorecards and apply them in their own organizations. Past participants also have raved about the value they received from working side-by-side with other participants, who come from all over the world and various organization types. This sharing of practical experience occurs through classroom discussions, through meet-and-greet receptions scheduled during the week, and in some cases through electronic correspondence long after the course has ended.

How to become certified

BSMP certification can be achieved by first earning BSP Certification and then returning to complete the BSMP Application Course.

It is recommended that participants wait a few months after completing the BSP certification before taking the BSMP Application course.
